I will, in good faith, fulfill these financial and participatory obligations as I have specified above. I understand that I may forfeit the right to register my child/children for the following year, if I fail to fulfill the financial obligations by April 15, 2011, unless prior approval is received from the Principal. I understand that Holy Cross Catholic School will only release legally required student records, if my financial obligation is not met. All other records will be withheld. I also understand that enrolling after the current school year has already started, or removing my child/children before the end of the school year will make me responsible for that trimester’s tuition.
